

Nakita A. Ross

Born and raised on the Eastern Shore, Agent Nakita A. Ross graduated Cum Laude from Delaware State University in May 2008 with a B.A in Criminal Justice and Sociology. In April 2012, she began her career with the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services (DPSCS), as a Parole and Probation Agent in the Elkton, MD Field Office. Initially beginning as a general supervision Agent, after two years she was promoted to the COMET

(Collaborative Offender Management Enforcement Team) Unit. As a part of the COMET unit, Agent Ross was responsible for the supervision of sexual offenders and worked closely with State's Attorneys, Victim Advocacy groups, various treatment providers and social service groups to aid in community safety and the goal of reducing recidivism. In November 2022, she was granted assignment as an Investigative Agent which oversees the completion of Pre-Sentence Investigations, Pre-Parole Investigations, and Pre-Employment Investigations amongst a myriad of other court or state ordered investigation requests. Agent Ross's duties and responsibilities span across Kent, Queen Anne's, Talbot and Caroline County although her office assignment is now in Chestertown, MD. Outside of her career, Agent Ross is the proud mother to one child whom is her absolute pride and joy. The two enjoy spending time at the beach, watching movies, and playing arcade games.
