

Rodney R. Davis

Officer Rodney R. Davis has been employed by the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services at Baltimore Central Booking Intake Center (BCIC) since January 1997. During his 27 years in corrections, he has worked in housing units, escort details, and officer in charge of medical over 11 years of his career. In 2010, Officer Davis was made Acting Sergeant and assigned to the segregation unit at BCBIC. His current assignment in corrections is the Institutional Training Coordinator for BCBIC where he is responsible for the certifications for over 350 correctional staff. Officer Davis is team oriented and will do anything to have his team thrive.