The Maryland State Commission on Criminal Sentencing Policy Invites You to Attend Our:

2017 Annual Public Comments Hearing

When: December 11, 2017

5:00 p.m. (Please note that a prior announcement erroneously listed the start time as 5:30 pm)

Where: House of Delegates Office Building
Judiciary Committee Room (Room 100)
6 Bladen Street
Annapolis, MD 21401

During its September 2017 meeting, the Commission voted to amend the juvenile delinquency score by clarifying the juvenile delinquency score instructions in the Maryland Sentencing Guidelines Manual and COMAR, adopting a five-year lookback window, and adopting a new juvenile scoring system. The Commission invites public comment on these changes, which are described in a notice posted at <http://www.msccsp.org/About/Meetings.aspx>.

If you wish to bring any other issue related to criminal sentencing policy to the attention of the Commission, please contact David Soulé, Executive Director of the Commission.

The Commission asks those who wish to speak at the meeting to register and submit written comments at least three days prior to the meeting.

You may contact Dr. Soulé via e-mail at: dsoule@umd.edu.
